District Overview:

- There were several robberies this week, but with the exception of the R1 beat, there does not appear to be any significant pattern.
- There were several residential burglaries this week, although fewer than last week.

P1 Beat:

- There was a robbery somewhere on Muddy Branch Road on Tuesday 3/14. The report has not been turned in yet; the limited suspect information was for two H/M's, both armed with large knives. This was detailed in last week's Weekly Summary.
- An attempted burglary occurred in the 200 block of Muddy Branch Road, Dollar & More, on Tuesday 3/21 at 0345 hours. Officers responded for an alarm and found the front door kicked and the glass shattered but not broken through. An employee said the suspects were standing outside the store just before closing and threw rocks and kicked the window.
Suspect: B/M, 14-16 yrs. old, 5'6", afro, green camouflage jacket
Suspect: B/M, 14-16 yrs. old, 5'6", black puffy jacket
- Two of the residential burglaries were reported on the same day and are in close proximity to each other. Neither report has been turned in yet; the information is via the CAD.
→ 1307 hrs. Unit block of Briarstone Lane A witness saw the suspects jump a fence at the residence and try the windows and doors. The suspects fled when they saw the witness; no entry was gained.
Suspect: W/M, teens, black jacket, grey sweater, jeans
Suspect: B/M, black jacket, black jeans

→ 1523 hrs. 100 block of Autumn Hill Way A resident came home and found the rear door open, NFI.

- Officers responded for an attempted rape in the 100 block of Duvall Lane on Monday 3/20 at 1935 hours. An adult female victim was in the common laundry room when the subject entered and exited the room twice. He came back a third time and walked towards the victim and she saw his belt was unbuckled and his pants unzipped. When she pushed him away and yelled at him, he fled without saying anything. Since there was no direct sexual contact, officers wrote a police information report.

Subject: B/M, 18-20 yrs. old, 5'10"-6'/130-140 lbs., shaved head, tan jacket, grey baggy pants

P2 Beat:

- A strong-armed robbery occurred outside the Giant at 46 Bureau Drive on Friday 3/17 at 2213 hours. The suspects approached as the victim exited the store. The first suspect grabbed her purse and after a struggle, was able to obtain it. All three suspects fled towards Chriswell Chevrolet. The other two suspects just stood by and didn't participate in the robbery.

Suspect: B/M, black scarf over his face, camouflage jacket, black jeans

Suspect: B/M, black jeans

Suspect: B/M, black jacket, black jeans

- The attempted residential burglary in the 900 block of Beacon Square Court on Sunday 3/19 was committed by a known suspect.
- In two of the thefts from vehicles, the doors were unlocked. The stereo was targeted in both, along with other loose items in the vehicle. A third victim said the method of entry was 'unknown' and only loose items were taken. The last victim left her keys in an unlocked locker at Fitness First on Darnestown Road and the suspect(s) used the keys to take a wallet. Two of the thefts were in the Kentlands and all of the thefts occurred on different nights.
- Possible hate-related graffiti was found in the 500 block of Market Street on Sunday 3/19. A purple pen was used to draw/write on the fence post.
- Officers responded to the Motel 6 at 497 Quince Orchard Road for possible CDS use on Friday 3/17 at 1004 hours. Several suspects were found and arrested after officers discovered CDS in the room. They also found a Butler .22 handgun, but only the suspect listed below was charged with the possession of the gun.

Defendant: Terri Bailey, B/F, 40 yrs. old, 5'6"/200 lbs., of the 19500 block of Frederick Road, Germantown

R1 Beat:

- The two robberies both occurred on Thursday 3/16 and are most likely related, due to the close proximity to each other and the similar methods.
 - 1315 hrs. 18300 block of Lost Knife Circle The suspects approached the victim outside and said something. The first suspect displayed two knives (one in each hand) causing the victim to flee into the building. The suspect tripped him on the stairs and reached in the victim's pocket, pulling out miscellaneous papers. Nothing of value was taken.

Suspect: B/M, 25-30 yrs. old, 5'10"/180 lbs., shaved head, heavy black hooded jacket
